Burke's Description of the Line of Inheritance of Murton and Burdon

According to Burke, the estate at Murton passed not to Richard, the eldest son of John, but to the second eldest son Thomas. (My assumption is that Richard having entered Holy Orders was not in a position to manage the estate). But, after 2 Thomas died, the estate passed back to Richard's descendants.

John Gregson of Murton died 30 October 1607  Thomas Gregson of Murton died 1629 (Thomas was the second eldest son of John). By his will dated 23 JUL 1629 he passed the estate to his nephew John.  John Gregson of Murton (son of Richard, who was the brother of Thomas 2.) d. 1674. The estate passed to his son Thomas. (buried 11 MAR 1674)  Thomas Gregson of Murton (m. 5 FEB 1653 Elizabeth Smith; she d. 1688), d. 1713 left the estate to his eldest son and heir John. (buried 26 June 1713)  John Gregson Murton baptized 5 FEB 1654 d. 1714 (m. 13 MAY 1680 Elizabeth Johnson of Dalden) passed the estate to his only son and heir John Gregson  John Gregson of Murton and Burdon; d. FEB 1742 (m. 22 MAY 1712 Mary Johnson, dau. John Johnson of East Murton). John left the estate to his only son John. (buried 26 February 1742)  John Gregson of Murton and Burdon baptized 10 APR 1713 d. 1786. This John was married four times.
